GAME TIME

1. Form three groups.
2. One group will be judge while the other two will be challengers.
3. Each turn, the judge group says a sentence using an adjective we learnt last week.
4. The first of the challenger groups to make a sentence using the opposite adjective gets a point!

Nteh

Yo teng dos irmang machu.

Yo nteh irmang femi.

Nteh

Yo teng singku gatu.

Yo nteh kachoru.

GAME TIME

1. In the same three groups, claim a whiteboard.
2. Pick someone's bag.
3. You have ten minutes to write as many sentences as you can about what that person's bag does not have.
4. You may use the whiteboard, phones, paper, etc.

GAME TIME

1. GRAB A SHOPPING LIST FROM KEVIN!
2. YOU'VE ALREADY BOUGHT ONE ITEM YOU NEED BUT YOU CAN'T REMEMBER WHAT THE OTHER THREE ARE.
3. YOU DO HOWEVER REMEMBER WHAT YOU DON'T WANT, AND YOU'VE WRITTEN THESE DOWN.
4. GO AROUND THE ROOM ASKING OTHER PEOPLE WHAT THEY HAVE; THREE PEOPLE WILL HAVE THE THINGS YOU WANT!

GAME TIME

5. Each turn, someone in your group is the judge. XE will draw a card from the adjective deck and place this face up in front of everyone.
6. Select one of the six noun cards in your hand that you think best suits the adjective in play.
7. The judge will collect everyone's noun cards and decides whose card fits the adjective the best. That person gets a point!

1. Three sentences using adjectives.
2. Anything you found difficult today.

A silhouette illustration of a coastal town. On the left, there is a building with a large dome and a cross on top. In the center, there are several sailboats with large sails. On the right, there is a tall lighthouse. The background is a light blue sky with a white horizon line.
